FACTS & FIGURES

COURSE DETAILS
Downhill:
Course name: Streif
Altitude at start: 1,665 m
Altitude at finish: 805 m
Route length: 3,312 m
Max./min. incline: Mausefalle 85%, Oberhausberg 2%
Top speed: circa 140 km/h
Average speed: circa 100 km/h
Average number of gates: 33

Super-G:
Course name: Streifalm
Altitude at start: 1,345 m
Altitude at finish: 805 m
Route length: 2,150 m
Max./min. incline: Starthang 76%, Oberhausberg 2%
Top speed: circa. 135 km/h

Slalom:
Course name: Ganslern
Altitude at start: 1,004 m
Altitude at finish: 811 m
Route length: 590 m
Max.& min. incline: Steilhang 70%, Talei 20%
Average number of gates: 62 gates
Average speed: 41,5 km/h

MOST SUCCESSFUL ATHLETES SINCE 1931
Overall: Anderl MOLTERER (AUT) with 9 wins
Downhill: Didier CUCHE (SUI) with 5 wins
Slalom: Ingemar STENMARK (SWE) with 5 wins
Super-G: Hermann MAIER (AUT) with 5 wins

MOST SUCCESSFUL NATIONS SINCE 1931
1.Austria (118 wins)
2. France (38 wins)
2. Switzerland (38 wins)

PRIZE MONEY 2027
Total amount: 1 050 000 euros

HISTORY
1931: First Hahnenkamm Races comprising of Downhill, Slalom and Combined
1932: First ladies' race (until 1961)
1937: Hahnenkamm Race held for the first time on the Streif and Ganslern racecourses
1938 - 1945: no races
1946: First races after the 2nd World War
1959: First live TV broadcast by ORF
1967: Hahnenkamm races staged as part of the newly founded Alpine Ski World Cup
1999: Record attendance with a total of 99,000 spectators

BUDGET
15 million euros

STAFF
Members of the Organising Committee (OC): approx. 350
OC Chief: Dr. Michael Huber
Over 1,500 people work for the Hahnenkamm Races on race days.

MATERIAL & INFRASTRUKTUR
17 km of safety nets with 10,000 PVC poles & 81 masts
17 km of spectator fences with 8,500 anchoring poles
180 impact protection mats & 155 1 km long airfences
23 TV-towers, 4 trainer towers
11 video walls
67 containers for temporary offices
51 WC containers
Grandstands: Finish Area, Mausefalle and Hausbergkante

SPECTATORS
85,000 spectators on average over all three days of the event (Friday: ca. 18,000, Saturday: ca. 45,000, Sunday: ca. 22,000)

MEDIA
Live TV broadcast on ORF in Austria since 1959
Live global broadcasting on around 30 TV channels
Over 100 TV stations report on the races worldwide
Ca. 700 media accreditations issued to around 20 nations
Ca. 20 TV stations and 15 radio stations reporting on site

KITZBÜHEL SKI CLUB (K.S.C.)
- Founded in 1902, Austria's second-oldest ski club
- 6 board members, 24 technical advisors & 16 employees
- 11,800 members in 2026
- From 2025, the Hahnenkamm Races will be organised by K.S.C. Hahnenkamm-Rennen Organisations GmbH on behalf of the club as event organisers.
- 61 medals have been won by K.S.C. athletes at Olympic Games & World Championships since 1952
- Year-round support/training for around 200 young athletes by 20 coaches in the Alpine, Nordic, biathlon & trend sport disciplines
- Annual organisation of 15-20 national and international sporting events in various winter sports disciplines, particularly in the junior sector.

STAY IN TOUCH WITH US ON
www.hahnenkamm.com
Facebook: fb.com/hahnenkammrennen.kitzbuehel
Instagram: @hahnenkammrennen
#hahnenkamm

Subject to change (November 2026)